

TO SEYED ALI-KHAMENEI
(THE RELIGIOUS LEADER OF IRAN)
AND HASHEMI RAFSANJANI
(EX-PRESIDENT & CHAIRMAN OF
THE EXPEDIENCY DISCERNMENT COUNCIL OF IRAN)

World Leaders, Politicians, and Defenders of Human Rights Take Note

Dr. Froud Fouladvand is the spokesman for the "Anjoman-e Padeshahi Iran." He has been broadcasting his message for the last 19 months on the subject of "Holy Qor'an" on "YOUR TV" Station on Telestar 5 and 12 Satellite. We believe that this is the only alternative to the salvation and rescue of the Iranian nation from certain destruction and disintegration by the extremist Islamic doctrine of Ayatollahs and the Mullahs in Tehran. The content of his message on this TV station has been an educational and philosophical argument with the correct and precise translation of the above-mentioned book, which differs from what has been preached by the Ayatollahs and so-called "Islamic scholars" of Iran.

Due to this fact, Dr. Fouladvand respectfully gives this notice and invites Seyed Ali-Khamenei (The Religious Leader of Iran) and Mr. Hashemi Rafsanjani (Ex-President of Iran) to a television debate regarding the content of the "Holy Qor'an" and the true history of Islam and Iran, which they profess to be the guardians of.

We hereby give this assurance that the debate will be conducted in a civilized and orderly fashion, which will be transmitted on "YOUR TV". The agenda will be determined at a later date.

In the event that the above-mentioned leaders refuse to appear or partake in this debate, this will indicate weakness of their intellectual position and leadership, as well as their hypocrisy and incompetency to act as leaders of a religion and leaders of IRAN.

Therefore, if they do not participate in this debate, it is upon the people of Iran to carry out nation-wide disobedience according to all civilized rules of conduct, and they should condemn their religious and governmental leaders.
